RESUME OF JOHN WALLIS CREIGHTON

John W. Creighton was born in China in 1916. He received a degree of Bachelor of Science in Wood Technology from the University of Michigan in 1938, and a degree of Bachelor of Arts from Hastings College in 1939.

From 1939 until 1942 he worked for a time with the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station; then purchased and operated a sawmill in Ohio. During the war years he worked for the War Production Board stationed in Ecuador where he was assigned to stimulate the production and export of balsa wood to the United States and United Kingdom.

In 1946, after a year as Vice President and General Manager of the Bacon Lumber Company in Indiana, he accepted a position as Assistant Professor at Michigan State University, where he taught Wood Technology and Industrial Engineering. In 1954 he was awarded the Ph.D. degree in Industrial Engineering and Wood Technology by the University of Michigan.

From 1955 until 1958 he was with the Baker Furniture Company, Holland, Michigan, as Assistant to the Vice President, and General Manager.

From 1958 until 1965 he worked in California as a General Building Contractor. A year of this period was with the Pacific Manufacturing Company of Santa Clara.

From 1965 until 1967 he was on the faculty of the College of Business at Colorado State University as Professor of Management.

In June 1967 he joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California, where he served as Chairman of the Department of Business Administration and Economics until June 1971. He is presently teaching in the Department of Administrative Sciences.
